Old Glory Triumphantly Floats Over the Captain General's Palace.

SALUTE OF TWENTY-ONE GUNS FIRED.

The Spanish Troops Stack Their Arms Between the Lines With Impressive Ceremonies.

Gen. McKibbin Acting Military Governor of Santiago—The Harbor Cleared of Mines and Torpedoes—13th and 9th Infantry to Depart.

In front of Santiago, July 18, via Guantanamo Bay.—Old Glory is now floating over the fortifications of Santiago.

At 9 o'clock Sunday morning the Spanish troops under command of Gen. Toral left their trenches and marched into the American lines, where one by one the regiments laid down their arms. At the same time the Spanish flag was hauled down and the stars and stripes hoisted in its place.

The work of loading the Spanish prisoners on transports preparatory to sending them back to Spain will be commenced as soon as ships are provided.

The authorities at Washington have urged to use haste in this matter. It has been suggested to use Spanish transports for the work, fear being expressed that the use of American vessels would result in the capture of the dangerous for use in moving American troops on account of the exposure of the Spaniards to yellow fever.

WASHINGTON, July 18.—Gen. Greely, chief signal officer, 11:20 a. m. received the first word of the formal surrender of Santiago to the American forces. His advice came from the signal officer at Santiago and said that the Spanish troops left the trenches and marched out Sunday morning, laying down their arms. The Spanish flag was hauled down.

The war department posted the following bulletin at 12:15 p. m. Sunday: SANTIAGO DE CUBA, July 18.—Adjutant General United States Army.—I have the honor to announce that the American flag has been this morning, 19 o'clock noon, hoisted over the house of the civil government in the city of Santiago. An immense concourse of people present. A squad of cavalry and a regiment of infantry, marching in arms and band playing national airs. Light battery fired salute 21 guns. Perfect order is being maintained by municipal government. Distress is very slight, but little sickness in town. Scarcely any yellow fever.

A small gunboat and about 200 seamen left by Cervera have surrendered to me. Obstructions are being removed from mouth of harbor. Upon coming into the city I discovered a perfect entanglement of defenses. Fighting as the Spaniards did the first day it would have cost five thousand lives to have taken it. Battleships of Spanish troops have been depositing arms since daylight in armory, over which I have guard. Gen. Toral formally surrendered the plaza and all stores at 9 a. m.

W. R. SHAFER, Major General. SANTIAGO DE CUBA, July 18.—Amid impressive ceremonies the Spanish flag came down and the stars and stripes were hoisted over the city. The Spanish troops were escorted by a troop of cavalry and Gen. Toral and his staff by 100 picked men.

Transports on both sides saluted with fourtimes.

Gen. Shafter returned to Gen. Toral the latter's sword after it had been handed to the American commander. Our troops, lined up at the trenches, were eye witnesses of the ceremony. Gen. Shafter and his escort, accompanied by Gen. Toral, rode through the city, taking formal possession. The city had been scolded before they arrived by the Spaniards.

At the palace elaborate ceremonies took place. Exactly at noon the American flag was raised over the palace and was saluted by guns by Gen. Capron's battery. At the same time all the regimental bands in our line played "The Star-Spangled Banner," after which President McKinley's congratulatory telegram was read to each regiment.

The 13th and 9th regiments of infantry will remain in the city to enforce order and exercise municipal authority. The Spanish forces are to be camped outside of our lines.

SANTIAGO, Cuba, July 18.—The American flag is floating in triumph over the governor's palace in Santiago, Cuba. Gen. McKibbin has been appointed temporary military governor. The ceremony of hoisting the stars and stripes was worth all the blood and treasure it cost. Over a concourse of 10,000 people witnessed the stirring and thrilling scene that will live forever in the minds of all Americans present. A finer stage setting for a dramatic episode it would be difficult to imagine. The palace, a picturesque old dwelling in the Moorish style of architecture, faces the Plaza de la Reina, the principal public square. Opposite rises the imposing Catholic cathedral. On one side is a quaint brilliantly painted building with broad verandas—the club of San Carlos. On the other, a building of much the same description is the Cafe de La Viena.

Across the plaza was drawn up the 9th infantry, headed by the regimental band. In the street facing the palace stood a picked troop of the 3d cavalry, with drawn sabers, under command of Capt. Brett. Massed on the stone flagstones between the band and the line of horsemen were the brigade commanders of Gen. Shafter's division with their staffs.

On the red-tiled roof of the palace sat Capt. McKibbin, Lieut. Miller and Lieut. Wheeler, immediately above them, upon the flagstaff, the illuminated Spanish arms and the legend, "Vive Alfonso XIII." All about, pressing against the veranda rail, crowding to windows and doors and lining the roofs, were the people of the town, principally women and non-combatants. As the chiming of the cathedral rang out the hour of 12 the infantry and cavalry presented arms. Every American uncovered, and Capt. McKibbin hoisted the stars and stripes. As the brilliant folds unfurled in the city breeze, against the fleecy sky, the cavalry band broke into the strains of "The Star-Spangled Banner," making the American pulse leap and the American heart thrill with about-breaking against the veranda rail.

At the same instant the sound of the distant booming of Capt. Capron's battery, firing a salute of 31 guns, drifted in. When the music ceased a great cheer from all directions around our line came floating across the plaza the strains of the regimental bands and the muffled, hoarse cheers of our troops. The infantry regiments to render account of the later, after the flag was up, and the band played "Rally Round the Flag, Boys." Instantly Gen. McKibbin called for three cheers for Gen. Shafter. All Guns and Defenses to Be Turned Over to the Americans in Good Condition—All Spaniards to Be Sent Home by America.

WASHINGTON, July 18.—The following messages were sent Saturday by President McKinley and Secretary R. A. Alger:

"The president of the United States sends to you and your brave army the profound thanks of the American people for the brilliant achievements at Santiago, resulting in the surrender of the city and all of the Spanish troops and territory under Gen. Toral. Your splendid command has endured not only the hardships and privations incident to campaign and battle, but in stress of heat and weather has triumphed over obstacles which would have overcome men less brave and determined. One and all have displayed the most conspicuous gallantry and earned the gratitude of the nation. The hearts of the people turn with tender sympathy to the sick and wounded of your army. May the Father of Mercies protect and comfort. (Signed) WILLIAM McKINLEY. To Maj. Gen. Shafter, front, near Santiago, Playa:—"

"I can not express in words my gratitude to you and your heroic men. Your work has been well done. God bless you all. (Signed) R. A. ALGER."

Sixteen New Cases, One Death. WASHINGTON, July 18.—The war department has posted the following at 10:30 a. m. Sunday:

ST. LOUIS, Va. Hatt, July 18, 1898. ST. LOUIS, Va. Hatt, July 18, 1898. ST. LOUIS, Va. Hatt, July 18, 1898.

GREENLEAF, Chief Surgeon. PORTO RICO AND SPAIN SENT. PLATA DEL ESTE, July 18.—Watson's squadron is preparing to go to Spain and several vessels are preparing for the expedition to Porto Rico. The auxiliary cruiser Yale with Gen. Miles will probably leave Porto Rico in the course of a day or two. Gen. Miles says a sufficient force will be sent to the island at once to take and hold it.

DALLAS, Tex., July 18.—A number of the counties of northern Texas have been swept by a terrific hail and wind storm. In Bosque county John McLean was killed. In Johnson county Mrs. Julia Rucker was fatally injured. Great damage was done to the grain and cotton crops.

COUNCIL OF WAR.

Proposed Invasion of Porto Rico and the Dispatch of Watson's Squadron to Spain Considered.

WASHINGTON, July 18.—A council of war was begun at the white house at 10:15 o'clock Saturday morning. There were present Secretaries Alger and Long and the members of the war board, consisting of Mr. Adams, Mr. Clegg, Mr. Crookshank and Capt. Mahan. It was proposed that the proposed invasion of Porto Rico and the dispatch of Watson's squadron to the coast of Spain were under consideration.

COMMODORE WATSON.

Secretary Alger, after the conference, said that the government was entirely satisfied with the conditions in and around Santiago, and there was no longer doubt of the surrender of Toral and his army was final and complete.

"They have unconditionally accepted our terms," added the secretary, "and the next thing is to provide ships to send the prisoners back to Spain. We will advertise at once for ships to be used as transports. The Spaniards will retain their side arms. That is always customary, and it is the only concession made to Toral."

DISTINGUISHED PRISONERS.

Adm. Cervera and the Other Officers of His Fleet Attend Divine Worship in St. Mary's Catholic Church.

ANAPOLIS, Md., July 18.—Maryland's ancient capital was crowded Sunday with curiosity seekers who came from Baltimore, Washington and elsewhere by rail and by water in the hope of getting a peep at Adm. Cervera and the men who fought and lost in the great naval fight off Santiago. Those who reached early in the morning were rewarded for their trouble, as nearly all the prisoners, including the admiral, attended divine service at St. Mary's Roman Catholic church. The admiral, who was in the front of the church, was surrounded by the faithful. The admiral's uniform was of the latest fashion, and he was surrounded by the faithful. The admiral's uniform was of the latest fashion, and he was surrounded by the faithful.

At the close of the services the officers returned to the naval academy and spent the balance of the day in strolling about the grounds or lounging on the broad piazzas which surround most of the buildings in which the prisoners are quartered. They are rapidly becoming accustomed to their surroundings and seem cheerful and contented. Ample provision has been made for their comfort, their food is plentiful and of the best quality, and clothes will be provided for such as will accept.

Capt. Eulalia of the Vizcaya, is the only one of the officers who has thus far refused to accept the parole pledge. His reasons for it are that Adm. Cervera was only equal to a verbal decomp on the staff of Gen. Shafter. On May 18 he was appointed by the admiral as second in command of the squadron, with the rank of captain, and was assigned soon afterwards to the 5th army corps, now under Shafter's command in Cuba. He is a resident of California.

SHORT SPECIALS.

The commissioner of internal revenue has held that receipts used as checks to draw money from banks are subject to the stamp tax.

The extension of the rural free delivery postal service authorized by the act passed last year has been pushed forward as rapidly as circumstances will permit. Nearly 60,000 of the 70,000 volunteers asked for by the president in his second call for troops have been recruited and most of them have been mustered into service.

Seventeen miners who left Dawson City June 25 have arrived at Seattle, Wash., on the steamer City of Seattle, bringing with them gold dust and drafts estimated at $600,000. Of this amount $180,000 was in dust.

It is reported that a member of the ministry declares that negotiations for peace with the United States are only possible so far as the question of Cuba is concerned. To demand more would be to say that Spain must commit suicide.

Gen. Chambers McKibbin, who has been appointed temporary military governor of Santiago, is a member of an old and well known Pennsylvania family. He was born in Chambersburg, not far from the famous Gettysburg battle.

It is expected by the navy department that but few ships of Adm. Sampson's squadron will enter the harbor at Santiago. Enough vessels will be sent in to put the harbor in condition for naval operations and the needs of American interests.

The harbor of Santiago will be cleared of mines as speedily as possible, and then be utilized as a naval station and harbor of refuge. It is admirably fitted to be a safe resort for American shipping in the hurricane season which is now upon us.

Government engineers and surveyors have arrived at Champlain, N. Y., for the preliminary survey of the proposed great ship waterway, between the great lakes and the Hudson, via St. Lawrence river and Lake Champlain.

A member of the Spanish cabinet in an interview Sunday asserted that the government was seeking an honorable peace with the United States. An official dispatch from Porto Rico says 150 cases of ammunition exploded there, killing 14 persons and wounding many others.

Gen. Miles is anxious to remove the troops from Cuba as soon as possible, even if they have to be kept on the transport ships for the time being before moving them to Porto Rico, and is therefore eagerly awaiting the determination of the further campaign by the Washington government.

Capt. Hunker, of the gunboat Annapolis, returned Sunday to Playa del Este from Naraco, where he had been three days watching for blockade runners. He had a slight engagement there with the Spanish who fired upon him with the press, but did not injure. Capt. Hunker returned the fire, setting fire to and burning the Spanish barracks.

Gen. Miles said Sunday: "I am most gratified over the surrender of Santiago. The terms are just as good as an unconditional surrender. The Spanish troops would eventually have to be sent to Spain by sending them at once we feed and keep them for a month or so instead of perhaps a year. It would be hard work to keep them in Cuba."

WIDE OPEN LETTER.

Dr. H. G. Campbell, an Old Soldier, Pays His Respects to Hon. S. J. Pugh.

MUSE'S MILL, Ky. July 14th, 1898.
To Hon. S. J. Pugh, Vanevor, Ky.—
My Dear Sir: In order that I may fulfill my promise to yourself I now address an open letter to you in regard to your repeated hypocrisy regarding friendship to old soldiers, more especially the boys of the Sixteenth Kentucky Infantry.

You will remember that you were constrained to believe that this Congressional District belonged to me and Morg after your re-election in 1896. Having been one of the first Electors in Kentucky to put your name forward for nomination in '94, and also for re-nomination in '96, I felt that it was obligatory and duty that I owed to you and our party to advise you regarding the status of the Postoffice at Muse's Mills, Ky. That W. A. Hinton, a worthy young Republican, was incumbent Postmaster, and his commission of four years would hold to July 1st, 1900, long after your term as Congressman will expire, and informed you that in case a vacancy occurred I would be an applicant for the appointment and asked, requested and abjured you to not order anything done regarding this office, as it would militate against party harmony in this county, and that I was an old soldier, broken in health and not able to perform any labor for the support of a large family, and was eminently qualified and equipped with the most comfortable and convenient location in the village for site for a Postoffice when it should be necessary to make a change in Postmasters.

As also other good and sufficient reasons for you keep your hands off what did not concern you or your duty to your country or yourself. But not caring for your party or candidate friends you promulgated your order, (but sensible men in Carter county sat down on you,) and you caused defeat of Fleming county Republican ticket. You advertise and reiterate that you are a warm friend of all old soldiers. How did you treat Comrade Lawrence, an old veteran of the Sixteenth Kentucky Infantry, who had the Postoffice at Petersburg, Ky.? You stopped to deprive him of the office to give it to a woman whose husband was rich. You, to further show your disregard for your word and for old veterans, recommended a young blacksmith and wagon-maker at Muse's Mills as against Dr. H. G. Campbell, who only asked you to not do anything against him. He knew full well that you were a Republican for revenue and would not ask any assistance from you. He also knew that you were one of the Pension Committee in Congress and designed claiming the credit of all the loyal members of the Committee's labors.

He also knew that the Government furnished all blanks, paid all postage and hired and paid your clerk or secretary to attend to all your pension business which you knew nothing about, but wanted to appropriate the honor for working for the old soldiers.
